And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

While you may not have known just what was different about last week's paper I hope that you found it easier to read. We installed new typesetting equipment the first part of last week and while we were a little late getting out because we got off to a late start and were a little disorganized, we hope this week is a little better.

While this new system is much faster than our old Linotype, the big difference to you, the reader, is that the type is set photographically and is therefore much sharper and cleaner.

The machine is a model CG2961 phototypesetting machine designed and manufactured by Compugraphic Corporation and is operated by punched paper tape. The machine has a built-in computer that decides where to end a line and how much space to put in the line to "justify" it (or make it come out even down the sides.) It also has an automatic hyphenation system.

Jan Kelley, who punches the paper tape on an electronically operated keyboard just punches a whole paragraph and the machine breaks this down into "justified" lines, hyphenating words as it needs to. All of this is done at about four or five times the speed of our old Linotype.

For one who doesn't understand how TV or radio works and never did for that matter understand how our Linotype could do what it did, this whole new operation is way over our heads.

But then they have proven to me that you don't have to understand it to fix most of the problems that occur. In fact we have already had one problem that was solved by just calling the service department and they told us what to do over the phone and amazingly enough it worked.

The only sad thing is that this new equipment is not near as romantic as the old Linotype — with all of its moving parts. This is just a box with flashing lights inside.

While we have been warned that we may have some troubles with this new equipment for the first few weeks, the people that have them claim that after that they are almost trouble-free — and we certainly hope so.

While we are still using our old Linotype (that was built in about 1917 or '18) in our commercial department and for some things in our newspaper the following "ode" seems appropriate. It was written by Douglas Meador in his "Trail Dust" column in the "Matador Tribune."

"An iron heart is breaking in the old Linotype machine that has created the type in a newspaper for more than a third of a century. It was a mechanical intuition that has cast a shadow across its future as certain as if the machine had set the type for its own obituary. It has a reluctance in performance as a doomed man might have in being forced to build the scaffolding for his own execution. Time and technical advancements have made the one mighty machine obsolete in a field it dominated by efficient performance, to a point where no new models are being manufactured. An era is ending for the machine capable of reusing the metal that recorded a death, to chronicling a new birth. Metal that once shaped words of war or other disaster has been reused over and over again, in printing happier events that affect a community and area. The old machine is helpless now to defend its position against replacement; the present can be made secure only in the process of change."

Like everyone else I suppose, I was glad to see the added 2 cents a gallon tax on gasoline taken out of the tax bill by the legislature but I can't say very much for the method used by Gov. Preston Smith in bringing this about.

He had ample time to present his

Hamlin Chapter, Members Capture Many Awards At Area FFA Convention

Hamlin Chapter was a term heard often during the Area II FFA Convention held Friday and Saturday in Fort Stockton as the Hamlin FFA Chapter and individual members of the chapter captured a large share of the area awards.

The Hamlin Chapter was named a superior chapter in the state chapter rating contest. The superior rating is the highest given by the Texas FFA Association. In the national chapter rating contest, Hamlin placed first in Area II. The chapter will compete on the state level in June when the top eleven chapters from Texas to be rated nationally are selected.

All four of Hamlin's candidates for advanced FFA degrees were successful at the convention. Davis Weaver was approved for his American Farmer Degree, the highest degree conferred upon members by the national FFA organization. He was named the Star American Farmer for Area II. Carlos Gonzalez, Oscar Guerra, and Rodney Rackley were all successful candidates for the Lone Star Farmer Degree, the highest degree the Texas FFA Association can confer upon its members. Carlos was named first runner-up in the Star Lone Star Farmer Contest.

Chapter members were most successful in the National FFA Foundation Awards program. Chapter members captured six titles out of the seven applied for. Davis Weaver won Crop Production; Larry Jayroe, Poultry Production; Rickey Gruben, Soil and Water Management; Kenneth Payne,

Fish and Wildlife Management; Charles Sellers, Agricultural Mechanics; and Mark Madden, Agricultural Electrification. Charles Sellers applied for Livestock Production.

In other awards, Charles Sellers won the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Award. This is the third year Charles has won this title on the Area level. Mark Madden was the area winner for the investor-owned electric utilities companies of Texas college scholarship. He received a $50.00 check at area and will now compete for a $1,000 college scholarship on the state level. Rodney Rackley was a runner-up in the public speaking contest and Edward Johnson ran a strong race for state officer nominee from Area II but was defeated in run-off election.

Charles Sellers served during the convention as the Area Vice-President representing the Double Mountain FFA District. In the VATAT Awards, Hamlin vocational agriculture teachers, Milburn Wink and T. C. Blankinship, were named top teachers in the area for newspaper and magazine publicity. The Hamlin Herald was named as the newspaper which had best publicized FFA and vocational agriculture work in Area II. Both teachers and the Herald will receive awards at the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas in-service workshop in August in Dallas.

Serving as voting delegates to the Area Convention from the Hamlin Chapter were Rickey Gruben, Johnny Howard, and Kenneth Payne. Other members attending the convention were Charles Sellers, Edward Johnson, Mark Madden, Carlos Gonzalez, Oscar Guerra, Rodney Rackley and Larry Jayroe. They were accompanied by chapter advisor, Milburn Wink.

All first place area winners will compete for state honors. These will be selected during the Advanced Degrees and Records Check committee meeting in Dallas during the first week in June. Milburn Wink will be attending this meeting as a member of the Board of Directors of the Texas FFA Association.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Caldwell this past weekend were their son Paul Jean, and his family. Also visiting was Mrs. Amy Jean from Wink, Tex.

R. D. Caldwell entered Medical Center in Abilene for treatment.

Water, Sewer Rates Hiked—

Council Approves 430,000 Budget

The Hamlin City Council approved a budget for 1971-72 in its regular session here Monday evening calling for the City to spend in excess of $430,000 during the fiscal year, a figure that does not include a new fire truck or work that must be done on the sewer system.

While the estimated expenses are down $60,000 from the actual expenses of this past year, Mayor Hollis Madden pointed out to the council that this did not include the new fire truck that the city must purchase and does not include anything for the new sewer system. It was also pointed out that the city spent around $40,000 more last year than it took in.

In an effort to raise the additional money needed for the sewer system and the fire truck the council voted to increase the sewer charges from $1.50 a month to $2.50 and to raise the water rates after the first 6,000 gallons. Under the new rate the minimum for the first 2,000 gallons remains at $2.50 and the next 14,000 gallons will be 60 cents a thousand and all over this will be charged at 50 cents a gallon.

Under the old rate the first 4,000 gallons after the minimum was 60 cents, the next 10,000 gallons, 50 cents and all over this was 40 cents.

The rates will go into effect after the meters are read this week and will show up on the July billings.

A budget hearing has been set by the council for June 1 at 1 p.m. in City Hall.

Most departments in the new budget reflect an increase in salaries, with the sewer department going from $18,420 to $20,700, the street department from $11,220 to $12,180, the police department from $37,048 to $40,830 and the administration from $6,680 to $7,140.

Total expenditures by departments estimated in the new budget and the actual expenses for this past year are as follows: Sewer, $31,200, $29,369; (this does not include new sewer system) Street,

$31,680, $28,218; Police, $51,925, $49,673; Fire, $10,805, $7,577 (this does not include a new fire truck); Administration, $18,915, $39,393; Park, $2,540, $2,743; Water, $130,430, $130,247.

The council also voted to accept bids on leasing the City owned land at the old airport and will open bids on a new patrol car Tuesday morning.

Bob Reynolds of Dallas and Helen McMurtry of Abilene met with the Council to discuss the possibility of the city looking into the matter of more low-rent housing units with the new units to be designed for the elderly. The units would be one-bedroom units located close to downtown.

The council discussed the matter but took no action at this time. Some of the problems of the existing housing units was discussed and it was the feeling of the Council that some of these problems need to be solved before the City should consider anymore units.

Also discussed by the Council was the problem of the shooting of rifles at West Lake. Vandals have shot holes in pipe being used to siphon some of the bad water out of the lake and damaged other property located at the lake. The danger of shooting rifles this close to the golf course was pointed out by Mayor Madden and it was suggested that signs be posted warning of the fine that can be imposed for shooting rifles within the city limits.

The men also discussed making West Lake Drive a four-lane street with no on street parking. The four-lanes would run from Central to Avenue G. Action on this was postponed until Ed Wheat, the new Police Chief had time to look into the matter.

The danger of people using the street as a four-lane without it being marked were sighted, as well as the number of accidents on the street.

Only No. 4 Passes Local Voters Approve Two Amendments In Light Vote

About 140 people turned out to vote here Tuesday on the four amendments to the state constitution, approving two and rejecting two. Latest returns available indicate that a state-wide only one of the amendments won the approval of the voters.

Apparently passing was amendment four, for issuance of $100 million in bonds to improve local sewage treatment. Local voters also approved amendment three, a plan to remove ceilings on welfare for the aged, disabled, and blind but keeping a ceiling on aid to dependent children.

The one box open in Hamlin showed the following results from the election:

1. Ethics-Legislator's pay: 64 for, 76 against.

2. Easier amendments: 63 for, 76 against.
3. End of some welfare ceilings: 76 for, 66 against.
4. Water quality bonds: 99 for, 42 against.

At the county level, Jones County voters approved only No. 4, with the following totals: 1. 268 for, 603 against; 2. 287 for, 561 against; 3. 367 for, 493 against; and 4. 466 for, 387 against.

Latest state-wide returns available were: 1. 272,479 for, 491,039 against; 2. 339,078 for, 411,511 against; 3. 371,812 for, 397,591 against; 4. 401,875 for, 353,900 against.

At least 42 of the 44 counties voting on liquor by the drink gave the measure overwhelming approval.

Existing without central gas air conditioning is no way to live. This summer and every summer central gas air conditioning can keep you cool, at a price you can live with. Very comfortably. To begin with, you'll save in installation costs. Just add a cooling unit to the furnace and ductwork of your central gas heating system. And there you have it. A complete central gas cooling system. You'll continue to save while you keep cool. Because gas is cheaper to use than electricity. And our special low summer rates for central gas cooling bring down the cost even more. Through the years you'll find that your maintenance costs are extremely low. Because central gas air conditioning is beautifully designed. Simply and ruggedly. With fewer moving parts to go wrong. It all adds up. This summer, have central gas air conditioning installed in your home. And find out how really sweet it is.

FORTY FIVE YEARS AGO

It will be recalled that some time ago the Boyd Service Station was robbed of its cash register. Since then every effort has been exerted to find out who took and where it is. Last Saturday, R. W. Smith, in whose name the cash register was recorded received a message that the cash register was found in the city of Wichita Falls. Mr. Boyd, who owns the machine went up there Wednesday and returned with it. It was found under a culbert and the water had been up over it and with the exception of a bit of rust and the varnish being dulled, it is as good as ever. Mr. Boyd is quite glad to recover his machine. He has been brightening it up since getting it back and it is now ready for the CASH again.

This week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Hamlin Hi and the much talked of Rotan Hi teams locked horns. Monday's game ended after the first half of the ninth was played. The score stood then six and six with Hamlin one more bat. The rain stopped the game.

Tuesday, Hamlin went to Rotan and the score stood nine to one in favor of Rotan. Wednesday they played again on the Hamlin lot and the result was five to four score in favor of Rotan. It is needless to commend on these games. The Herald reporter did not attend either of them and there is so much being said about High School players that anything the Herald may say would not help matters.

The Methodist Church will hold its annual revival the last two weeks in June, beginning the second Sunday in the month. Rev. A. B. Davidson, pastor of the Methodist Church at Slaton will do the preaching. We earnestly desire the co-operation of all the people of the town and community in this evangelistic campaign.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Temporary relief from the prolonged dry period for Hamlin and this portion of Jones County was brought late last Thursday night when an excess of one inch of rain was credited to the city limits. Heavier downpours in other than the city proper brought an encouraging view to planters.

Reports from the city administration were that a seven-inch rise had been gained in the new lake and this brought a short surcease from the water to shortage that has confronted Hamlin.

Intermittent showers that have come since the Thursday rain did not affect the situation at the lake and shipment of water from wells at Rule and Rochester has become imperative again.

Elsewhere will be found a letter of explanation of their plans from the Mayor and City Council.

An army C-47 plane caused a temporary terror over Hamlin last Thursday night when the pilot became lost in the electrical storm that was raging at the time.

Marshall E. Warren, Pioneer Airlines manager at Abilene reported Friday morning that the plane circled Hamlin about 30 minutes and members of the fire and police department enlisted the aid of citizens to turn car lights and flashlights on the water tower. Other cars were sent to the air strip north of the city to aid in lighting should the pilot be forced to land. The strip is not large enough to accomodate a plane of the size of a C-47 and the plane would probably have crashed had a landing been necessary.

W. F. Johnson exercised unusual presence of mind when he sensed the pilot's plight and telephoned the Pioneer office in Abilene to enlist their aid in radioing directions to flyer.

The Abilene station was able to establish contact with the lost pilot and guide him to that field.

After arrival over Abilene the pilot was put on his course and departed for Fort Worth, where he is reported to have landed safely.

Reports were that he was enroute from Oklahoma City to Roswell and he had been off his course for about one hour prior to his arrival over Hamlin.

TEN YEARS AGO
(May 18, 1961)

A big parade, headed by the Hamlin High School marching band and highlighted by Miss Beautify contestants, will open the second annual Clean-up, Fix-up and Paint-up campaign sponsored by the Hamlin Jaycees. The parade will get underway at 3 p.m. Thursday, May 25.

Others taking part in the parade will be Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and other organizations.

Following the parade at 8 p.m. Miss Beautify of Hamlin will be chosen from the 50 contestants being sponsored by the local merchants. The contest will be held in the High School Auditorium with an admission charge of 50 cents.

The High School Stage band will provide the music for the event. Out of town jaycees will serve as judges.

Each year cities and towns compete in eight population categories vying for top honors based on the degree of improvement and of citizens participating.

Smith called upon every citizen to join in the Clean-up effort to insure a more healthy and better life for all citizens of Hamlin.

Spills and thrills-mostly spills will be on the menu Saturday, May 27, when the Hamlin Lions Club brings Ralph Godfrey's famous Donkey Ball to Hamlin.

Booked as better than a rodeo and funnier than a circus, the game will be played at the Hamlin Ball Park at 7:45 p.m.

Lions Club members and local high school boys will compose the two teams.

There will also be a special act by a trick mule.

Admission to the game will be adults 75 cents and children 25 cents.

This area's first carload of wheat was shipped Tuesday by F. B. Moore Grain Company. The car was shipped to the Brackett Grain Company in Fort Worth. The wheat was from several area fields and averaged about 1 bushels to acre.

Some of the farmers who were first to get part of their wheat to the elevator were W. M. Barnett (Sayer farm), James Blanton, Mac Reynolds, Sigmond Stovall, Robert Johnson and John Scarborough.

It was not known here Wednesday whether this was the first car in the nation or not. Moore's have had the first car a number of times during the past few years.

There are several chemicals recommended for spraying commercial orchards but only Malathion is recommended for home yard trees at the present time.

If rosette is a problem, growers should add three tablespoons of zinc sulfate (36 percent AS) per three gallon of spray solution.

The Ultimate in Satisfaction

When we were children, the ultimate in satisfaction was an ice cream cone, a nickel's worth of candy, a handful of homemade cookies. But now that we are grown-up, God's spirit has shown us there are more important things in life than satisfying our appetites. There is a higher plane of living—that of loving and serving God and one's neighbor. God wants us to respond to His love by showing this same kind of love to others. The church is the place to center your mature living. Attend church

AT NEWMAN TABERNACLE — Mrs. Lea Dickerson of Sylvester, one of the former residents of the Newman Community, and her great-granddaughter, Sherita Dickerson, 3, are shown in front of the Newman Tabernacle that will be the site for the Old Settlers Reunion June 5. The tabernacle is being painted and a new roof was put on last year. Tables and benches are also part of the improvements.

(Editor's note: This story was written from information compiled by W. O. Reeves of Sylvester to whom we are grateful for recording such a history.)

The open air tabernacle in the Newman Community will once again become the center of community activity when residents and former residents gather for the annual Old Settlers reunion Saturday, June 5.

This custom, which was begun in 1920 to bring the people together to give the cemetery a thorough working, is still in practice even though ample funds are provided for the upkeep of the cemetery. Friends still gather the first Saturday in June and bring a basket lunch and visit together under the tabernacle.

The tabernacle was built in 1900. In 1930 it was rebuilt and cut down to the present size of 40 X 60 feet. It has served for revivals, family reunions, a meeting place for basket dinners, and for rabbit drives 60 years ago. In 1970 a new roof and other repair work was done, and long tables built to take care of the ample dinners brought in by the Old Settlers.

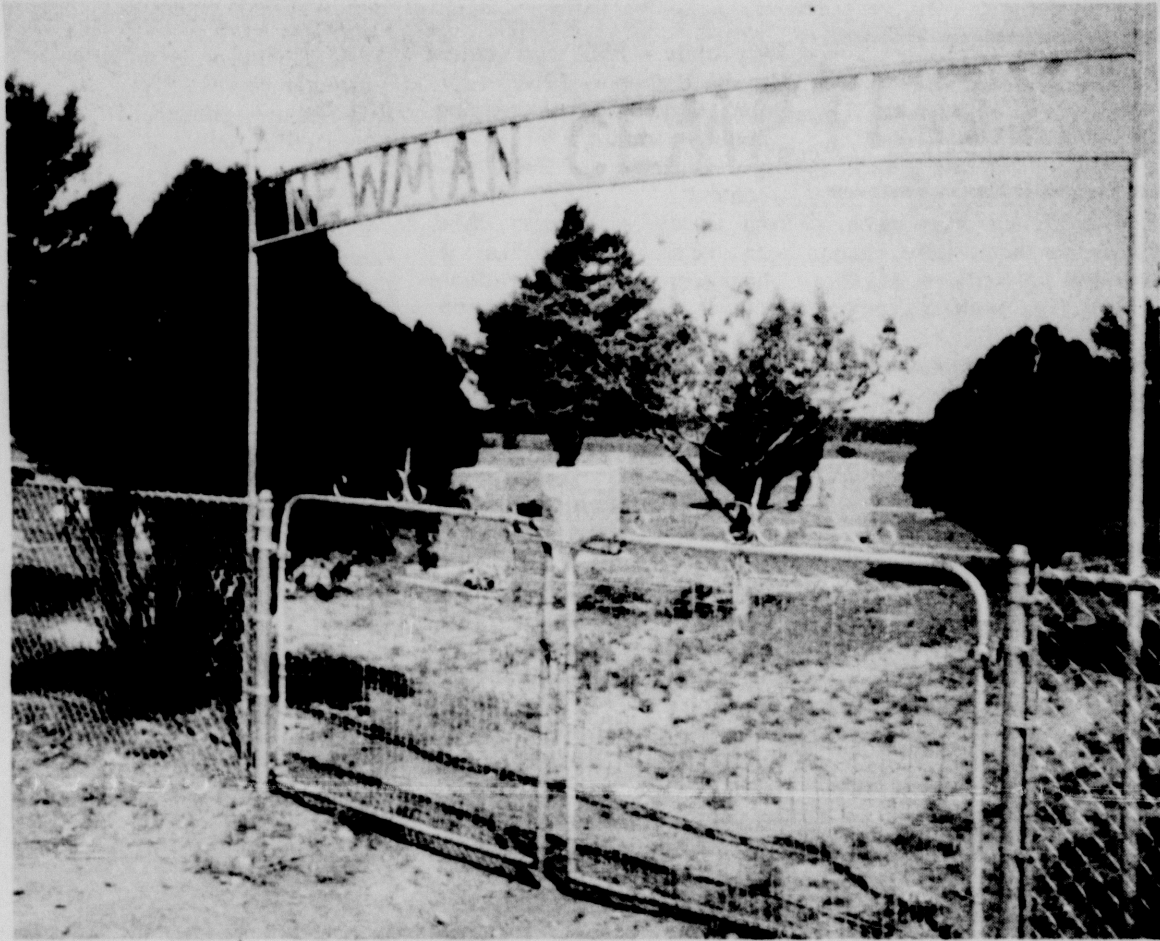

In 1970 the reunion was attended by 135 persons and there was enough food to feed that many more.

The tabernacle is the only one remaining in Fisher County. It is located one-half mile west of the old school location. The brick Methodist church still stands adjacent to the tabernacle, but is no longer used and is rapidly deteriorating. These buildings are on land donated by John W. Dickerson.

The cemetery directly across the gravelled road, was started on land donated by C. Y. Powell. The first burial was a little boy who was from a family living on the Riley Walling place. According to the records there is a grave of a woman whose name is unknown. She had previously lived in the Golan community and was brought back to Newman for burial in 1923.

A record of the location of each of the other graves is kept by Mrs. Lea Dickerson who has been custodian of the cemetery records for several years. She has served in several capacities for the cemetery fund and Old Settlers Reunion for 28 years. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. (Blackie) Ford are also officers of the organization.

The cemetery was first fenced with barbed wire in 1904.

CEMETERY ENTRANCE — A new chain link fence was placed around the Newman Cemetery with funds provided by those interested in the upkeep of the cemetery. Former residents who return the first Saturday in June each year for the Old Settlers Reunion no longer have to work the grounds. Funds are given generously for this purpose.

A better fence was constructed in 1944 with private donations and then in 1968 an arch was put over the double entrance gates and a new gate was put in for the entrance of service vehicles. This was done with money from the cemetery fund and the generous assistance of Jim Briscoe of Sweetwater, Truett Dickerson, Andrew and Lucille Ford and Lorene Mauldin.

All of the old settlers are the first generation children of the pioneers who started the settlement. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lanning, who are still actively engaged in farming and cattle raising, are about the only old settlers left in the community. The others have retired and moved to town. The farming and cattle raising are being carried on by second and third generation children.

The old settlers still come back, many from the fourth generation, from all over Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and some from as far away as California and New York.

When the community was at its best, Sylvester was a thriving town made up of gins, a theatre, a bank, dry goods store, grocery stores, a post office, a school, cafes, a barber shop and service stations. But, with cars, good roads and shopping districts, it has faded away to a post office operated by Mrs. M. D. Brown, a garage operated by Guy Mauldin, a service station operated by Truman Mauldin, a grocery store operated by Chub Hardwick, a blacksmith shop owned by Milton Montgomery and a gin.

City water has been piped in from Roby so modern conveniences are available to those who continue to live in the once bustling community.

In the early 1900's Hamlin was a good town in which to buy and sell but to get there meant a day in a wagon over dirt roads and usually a night spent in the wagon yard before the return home the following day. Ice was bought in 100 to 300 pound blocks to insure getting home with enough for the usual Saturday night ice cream making and iced tea for Sunday.

The pioneers and old settlers did not have the easily prepared food of today but there was always plenty of game, fresh and cured meats, fresh and home canned fruits and vegetables and good bread and pastry cooked by experts.

W. O. Reeves says, "That good food and cooking still shows up in the baskets brought in by the Old Settlers."

Jones County Added to Federal Drought Program

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman Omar Burleson announced today the U.S. Department of Agriculture has made available government-owned feed grain at reduced prices and hay transportation assistance to eligible livestock owners in Jones County.

Jones County was one 28 additional counties in Texas added to the list of counties eligible for the assistance. The counties have been under severe drought conditions since last fall.

Darrell Craig Wins Annual Reader's Digest Award

Darrell Craig, valedictorian of the graduating class at Hamlin High School, has been given the Annual Award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community. It was announced today by B. V. Newberry, principal.

Darrell will receive an honorary one-year subscription to The Reader's Digest in any one of its 13 language-editions which he chooses, and a personal certificate from the Editors "in recognition of past accomplishments and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

Ninety-nine Texas counties were offered assistance under the emergency livestock feed program earlier this year.

If relief were not provided, many producers would be forced to liquidate part of their foundation herds.

The livestock feed program becomes operative in counties where the Secretary of Agriculture determines that severe drought, flood or similar conditions have reduced feed supplies to the point where assistance is required to help eligible farmers preserve and maintain foundation herds and other eligible livestock.

The grain and hay transportation assistance will be offered through the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) county offices which are charged with the responsibility for determining eligibility of individual producers for assistance.

Darrell Craig to Attend Nuclear Science Symposium

West Texas Utilities Company will sponsor 22 students and teachers to the eleventh annual Texas Nuclear Science Symposium for High Schools at the University of Texas at Austin June 7-10.

Darrell Craig, a senior in Hamlin High School has been selected by school officials to attend the four-day meeting. He will be accompanied by Barney Popnoc, teacher in the high school. Darrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Craig.

The symposium, held annually at the university, is sponsored by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation and the University. West Texas Utilities Company and nine other electric power companies in Texas make up the foundation.

Some 550 outstanding science students and teachers will attend the meeting in Austin. They will have the opportunity to hear outstanding scientists from both industry and education discuss nuclear physics and other related topics. Two afternoons will be spent touring the science laboratories of the university. Included will be visits to experiments being carried on in thermonuclear (fusion) research. These experiments are being carried on by scientists at the university for the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

"West Texas Utilities company is interested in this research as a future source of generation of electricity," Roff Hardy, president, said. "These experiments are aimed at eventual control of the nuclear reaction which takes place in the hydrogen bomb. When harnessed, the energy released in this nuclear reaction could be used for such peaceful purposes as power generation."

A major feature of the symposium will be an address by Dr. Edward Teller, Lawrence Radiation Laboratories, University of California, Livermore, Calif. Other noted speakers include Dr. H. O. Pollak of Bell Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, N.J.; Phillip C. Johnson, M.D. of the Methodist Hospital, Houston, Dr. Sidney Stoller, president of S.M. Stoller Corporation; New York; Dr. Robert G. Cochran, Professor at Texas A&M University; Dr. J. T. Prud'homme, Texas Nuclear Corporation; Dr. W. Peter Trower, Professor of Physics, Virginia Polytechnic Institute; and Dr. Richard Caldwell, Mobile Research Laboratories, Dallas.

Speakers from the university who will be on the program include, Dr. Harlan J. Smith, Chairman of Astronomy Department, Dr. A. E. Robson, Research Scientist, and Dr. James E. Stice, Director of the Bureau of Engineering Teaching.

"This is an excellent opportunity for students interested in careers in science to hear about and see the thrilling things that are happening in the field of nuclear science," President Hardy said. "Our association with the university in this program also has provided a field of research for a number of university students and the opportunity to have these annual high school science symposiums."

Bill Introduced to Exempt Farm Vehicles from Act

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Omar Burleson of Texas, has recently introduced legislation that would amend Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act in order to completely exempt certain farm vehicles from its provisions. Burleson said there is a widespread support for this legislation in the rural areas of the 17th Congressional District.

While there has been a historic exemption for farm vehicle operators in the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, last year new regulations were proposed to require that all drivers of farm trucks must be at least 21 and have a medical certificate not more than 24 months old. They must pass both Federal written and road tests. These are in addition to state regulations.

While these would presumably be applicable only to interstate commerce, recent interpretations suggest that if the product hauled subsequently ends up in interstate commerce the hauler would be subject to regulation. Clearly, there is no way for the individual farmer or rancher to determine the final destination of his load.

Burleson said he feels such regulations to be unreasonable because of the nature of farm truck usage, which is different from that of large-scale commercial transportation. "Regulations useful in the latter case would be oppressive for the farmer," the Congressman said. "Most farm hauls are for short trips on an intermittent basis, but would still come under the proposed regulations. Further, farm truck safety records are already dramatically better than commercial haulers," he continued.

Because of protests by Members of Congress, farm organizations and individual farmers, the Federal Highway Administration has drafted some revision to eliminate some of these stringent requirements and attempt to make the proposed regulations more palatable to farmers and ranchers, by extending the exemption date from July 1 to December 1; to exempt from driver qualification rules all drivers of vehicles 10,000 pounds or less; and propose lowering minimum age for those using such trucks on farms. These revisions have not been approved, however, Congressman Burleson said.

"I hope this can be settled administratively," Burleson continued, "and that this proposed legislation will be helpful as leverage to accomplish this purpose. As a matter of fact, there appears no justification for any regulation on driving farm trucks, other than that already provided by the State. The legislation introduced is for this purpose."

The Merkel Mail — The summer Youth Program underwritten by the Merkel Chamber of Commerce and the Community Fund will be held this year from June 7 to July 30.

Only change for those school age children enrolled in the program will be an increase in the casual weekly rate from $1.25 to $1.50.

Other rates will remain the same: $10 for the complete 8-week program for one child, $17.50 for two children, $25 for three and $30 for four or more.

Directors of the Merkel Chamber of Commerce set the recommended retail holidays for the coming year at a meeting Tuesday night.

July Fourth comes on Sunday this year and stores will be closed Monday.

Other holidays will be on their regular dates and include: Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's.

Western Observer (Anson) — Razing of at least three old, unsightly buildings will help signal the opening next Monday of Anson's City-Wide Clean-up for this spring.

The big push for a complete job removing rubbish and junk from every home, place of business and from vacant lots will continue throughout the week with the City furnishing trucks for removal of larger items and citizens encouraged to use their own pickups and trucks to facilitate the effort.

Buildings in the business section that have already been demolished and sites cleared were the old Chili King Cafe and another small building just north of the old cafe.

At least one other building, the old C. H. Pool mansion is being torn down so that a block of residential lots can be cleared.

A well-rounded summer recreation program for Anson is assured this year and is to start on June 7, under the direction of Coach Charles Cate, it was announced this week by George Hopper, Anson High School head coach who organized and supervised the program the past two years.

Registration for participation in the program, which includes 10 areas of physical training and recreational activities, will begin Monday, May 24, at the Anson Chamber of Commerce office. The general registration fee, including insurance will be $2.00. Additional fees will be charged in swimming and life saving, tennis, twirling and cheerleading classes.

The Stamford American — The Stamford Hospital District hit a snag at Austin Monday in their efforts to get a bill passed which would call an election on the question of enlarging the district. However, board members said Wednesday they were not discouraged and that they would continue to press for passage of the bill.

The bill had been introduced by Rep. Frank Calhoun and a hearing was held by the Counties Committee. After protests were voiced by some residents of Lueders and Anson, the bill was referred to a sub-committee.

The proposed new district would include both Lueders and Avoca, would extend southward to within five miles of Anson, would not include Funston but would run along U. S. Highway 180 on to the east. To the west, the district line would run to about one-half way between Tuxedo and Hamlin.

The summer program will be directed by Steve Radway, coach at Stamford High School, and will be in progress for an eight week period.

Registration for the various phases begins May 31 and continues through June 4.

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

While you may not have known just what was different about last week's paper I hope that you found it easier to read. We installed new typesetting equipment the first part of last week and while we were a little late getting out because we got off to a late start and were a little disorganized, we hope this week is a little better.

While this new system is much faster than our old Linotype, the big difference to you, the reader, is that the type is set photographically and is therefore much sharper and cleaner.

The machine is a model CG2961 phototypesetting machine designed and manufactured by Compugraphic Corporation and is operated by punched paper tape. The machine has a built-in computer that decides where to end a line and how much space to put in the line to "justify" it (or make it come out even down the sides.) It also has an automatic hyphenation system.

Jan Kelley, who punches the paper tape on an electronically operated keyboard just punches a whole paragraph and the machine breaks this down into "justified" lines, hyphenating words as it needs to. All of this is done at about four or five times the speed of our old Linotype.

For one who doesn't understand how TV or radio works and never did for that matter understand how our Linotype could do what it did, this whole new operation is way over our heads.

But then they have proven to me that you don't have to understand it to fix most of the problems that occur. In fact we have already had one problem that was solved by just calling the service department and they told us what to do over the phone and amazingly enough it worked.

The only sad thing is that this new equipment is not near as romantic as the old Linotype — with all of its moving parts. This is just a box with flashing lights inside.

While we have been warned that we may have some troubles with this new equipment for the first few weeks, the people that have them claim that after that they are almost trouble-free — and we certainly hope so.

While we are still using our old Linotype (that was built in about 1917 or '18) in our commercial department and for some things in our newspaper the following "ode" seems appropriate. It was written by Douglas Meador in his "Trail Dust" column in the "Matador Tribune."

"An iron heart is breaking in the old Linotype machine that has created the type in a newspaper for more than a third of a century. It was a mechanical intuition that has cast a shadow across its future as certain as if the machine had set the type for its own obituary. It has a reluctance in performance as a doomed man might have in being forced to build the scaffolding for his own execution. Time and technical advancements have made the one mighty machine obsolete in a field it dominated by efficient performance, to a point where no new models are being manufactured. An era is ending for the machine capable of reusing the metal that recorded a death, to chronicling a new birth. Metal that once shaped words of war or other disaster has been reused over and over again, in printing happier events that affect a community and area. The old machine is helpless now to defend its position against replacement; the present can be made secure only in the process of change."

Like everyone else I suppose, I was glad to see the added 2 cents a gallon tax on gasoline taken out of the tax bill by the legislature but I can't say very much for the method used by Gov. Preston Smith in bringing this about.

He had ample time to present his

Hamlin Chapter, Members Capture Many Awards At Area FFA Convention

Hamlin Chapter was a term heard often during the Area II FFA Convention held Friday and Saturday in Fort Stockton as the Hamlin FFA Chapter and individual members of the chapter captured a large share of the area awards.

The Hamlin Chapter was named a superior chapter in the state chapter rating contest. The superior rating is the highest given by the Texas FFA Association. In the national chapter rating contest, Hamlin placed first in Area II. The chapter will compete on the state level in June when the top eleven chapters from Texas to be rated nationally are selected.

All four of Hamlin's candidates for advanced FFA degrees were successful at the convention. Davis Weaver was approved for his American Farmer Degree, the highest degree conferred upon members by the national FFA organization. He was named the Star American Farmer for Area II. Carlos Gonzalez, Oscar Guerra, and Rodney Rackley were all successful candidates for the Lone Star Farmer Degree, the highest degree the Texas FFA Association can confer upon its members. Carlos was named first runner-up in the Star Lone Star Farmer Contest.

Chapter members were most successful in the National FFA Foundation Awards program. Chapter members captured six titles out of the seven applied for. Davis Weaver won Crop Production; Larry Jayroe, Poultry Production; Rickey Gruben, Soil and Water Management; Kenneth Payne,

Fish and Wildlife Management; Charles Sellers, Agricultural Mechanics; and Mark Madden, Agricultural Electrification. Charles Sellers applied for Livestock Production.

In other awards, Charles Sellers won the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Award. This is the third year Charles has won this title on the Area level. Mark Madden was the area winner for the investor-owned electric utilities companies of Texas college scholarship. He received a $50.00 check at area and will now compete for a $1,000 college scholarship on the state level.

Water, Sewer Rates Hiked—

Council Approves 430,000 Budget

The Hamlin City Council approved a budget for 1971-72 in its regular session here Monday evening calling for the City to spend in excess of $430,000 during the fiscal year, a figure that does not include a new fire truck or work that must be done on the sewer system.

While the estimated expenses are down $60,000 from the actual expenses of this past year, Mayor Hollis Madden pointed out to the council that this did not include the new fire truck that the city must purchase and does not include anything for the new sewer system. It was also pointed out that the city spent around $40,000 more last year than it took in.

In an effort to raise the additional money needed for the sewer system and the fire truck the council voted to increase the sewer charges from $1.50 a month to $2.50 and to raise the water rates after the first 6,000 gallons. Under the new rate the minimum for the first 2,000 gallons remains at $2.50 and the next 14,000 gallons will be 60 cents a thousand and all over this will be charged at 50 cents a gallon.

Under the old rate the first 4,000 gallons after the minimum was 60 cents, the next 10,000 gallons, 50 cents and all over this was 40 cents.

The rates will go into effect after the meters are read this week and will show up on the July billings.

A budget hearing has been set by the council for June 1 at 1 p.m. in City Hall.

Most departments in the new budget reflect an increase in salaries, with the sewer department going from $18,420 to $20,700, the street department from $11,220 to $12,180, the police department from $37,048 to $40,830 and the administration from $6,680 to $7,140.

Total expenditures by departments estimated in the new budget and the actual expenses for this past year are as follows: Sewer, $31,200, $29,369; (this does not include new sewer system) Street,

$31,680, $28,218; Police, $51,925, $49,673; Fire, $10,805, $7,577 (this does not include a new fire truck); Administration, $18,915, $39,393; Park, $2,540, $2,743; Water, $130,430, $130,247.

The council also voted to accept bids on leasing the City owned land at the old airport and will open bids on a new patrol car Tuesday morning.

Bob Reynolds of Dallas and Helen McMurry of Abilene met with the Council to discuss the possibility of the city looking into the matter of more low-rent housing units with the new units to be designed for the elderly. The units would be one-bedroom units located close to downtown.

The council discussed the matter but took no action at this time. Some of the problems of the existing housing units was discussed and it was the feeling of the Council that some of these problems need to be solved before the City should consider anymore units.

Also discussed by the Council was the problem of the shooting of rifles at West Lake. Vandals have shot holes in pipe being used to siphon some of the bad water out of the lake and damaged other property located at the lake. The danger of shooting rifles this close to the golf course was pointed out by Mayor Madden and it was suggested that signs be posted warning of the fine that can be imposed for shooting rifles within the city limits.

The men also discussed making West Lake Drive a four-lane street with no on street parking. The four-lanes would run from Central to Avenue G. Action on this was postponed until Ed Wheat, the new Police Chief had time to look into the matter.

The danger of people using the street as a four-lane without it being marked were sighted, as well as the number of accidents on the street.

About 140 people turned out to vote here Tuesday on the four amendments to the state constitution, approving two and rejecting two. Latest returns available indicate that a statewide only one of the amendments won the approval of the voters.

Apparently passing was amendment four, for issuance of $100 million in bonds to improve local sewage treatment. Local voters also approved amendment three, a plan to remove ceilings on welfare for the aged, disabled, and blind but keeping a ceiling on aid to dependent children.

The one box open in Hamlin showed the following results from the election:

Existing without central gas air conditioning is no way to live.

This summer and every summer central gas air conditioning can keep you cool, at a price you can live with. Very comfortably.

To begin with, you'll save in installation costs.

Just add a cooling unit to the furnace

and ductwork of your central gas heating system. And there you have it. A complete central gas cooling system.

You'll continue to save while you keep cool. Because gas is cheaper to use than electricity.

And our special low summer rates for central gas cooling bring down the cost even more.

Through the years you'll find that your maintenance costs are extremely low. Because central gas air conditioning is beautifully designed. Simply and ruggedly. With fewer moving parts to go wrong.

It all adds up. This summer, have central gas air conditioning installed in your home. And find out how really sweet it is.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FORTY FIVE YEARS AGO

It will be recalled that some time ago the Boyd Service Station was robbed of its cash register. Since then every effort has been exerted to find out who took and where it is. Last Saturday, R. W. Smith, in whose name the cash register was recorded received a message that the cash register was found in the city of Wichita Falls. Mr. Boyd, who owns the machine went up there Wednesday and returned with it. It was found under a culbert and the water had been up over it and with the exception of a bit of rust and the varnish being dulled, it is as good as ever. Mr. Boyd is quite glad to recover his machine. He has been brightening it up since getting it back and it is now ready for the CASH again.

This week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Hamlin Hi and the much talked of Rotan Hi teams locked horns. Monday's game ended after the first half of the ninth was played. The score stood then six and six with Hamlin one more bat. The rain stopped the game.

Tuesday, Hamlin went to Rotan and the score stood nine to one in favor of Rotan. Wednesday they played again on the Hamlin lot and the result was five to four score in favor of Rotan. It is needless to commend on these games. The Herald reporter did not attend either of them and there is so much being said about High School players that anything the Herald may say would not help matters.

The Methodist Church will hold its annual revival the last two weeks in June, beginning the second Sunday in the month. Rev. A. B. Davidson, pastor of the Methodist Church at Slaton will do the preaching. We earnestly desire the co-operation of all the people of the town and community in this evangelistic campaign.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Temporary relief from the prolonged dry period for Hamlin and this portion of Jones County was brought late last Thursday night when an excess of one inch of rain was credited to the city limits. Heavier downpours in other than the city proper brought an encouraging view to planters.

Reports from the city administration were that a seven-inch rise had been gained in the new lake and this brought a short surcease from the water to shortage that has confronted Hamlin.

Intermittent showers that have come since the Thursday rain did not affect the situation at the lake and shipment of water from wells at Rule and Rochester has become imperative again.

Elsewhere will be found a letter of explanation of their plans from the Mayor and City Council.

An army C-47 plane caused a temporary terror over Hamlin last Thursday night when the pilot became lost in the electrical storm that was raging at the time.

Marshall E. Warren, Pioneer Airlines manager at Abilene reported Friday morning that the plane circled Hamlin about 30 minutes and members of the fire and police department enlisted the aid of citizens to turn car lights and flashlights on the water tower. Other cars were sent to the air strip north of the city to aid in lighting should the pilot be forced to land. The strip is not large enough to accommodate a plane of the size of a C-47 and the plane would probably have crashed had a landing been necessary.

W. F. Johnson exercised unusual presence of mind when he sensed the pilot's plight and telephoned the Pioneer office in Abilene to enlist their aid in radioing directions to flyer.

The Abilene station was able to establish contact with the lost pilot and guide him to that field.

After arrival over Abilene the pilot was put on his course and departed for Fort Worth, where he is reported to have landed safely.

Reports were that he was enroute from Oklahoma City to Roswell and he had been off his course for about one hour prior to his arrival over Hamlin.

TEN YEARS AGO
(May 18, 1961)

A big parade, headed by the Hamlin High School marching band and highlighted by Miss Beautify contestants, will open the second annual Clean-up, Fix-up and Paint-up campaign sponsored by the Hamlin Jaycees. The parade will get underway at 3 p.m. Thursday, May 25.

Others taking part in the parade will be Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and other organizations.

Following the parade at 8 p.m. Miss Beautify of Hamlin will be chosen from the 50 contestants being sponsored by the local merchants. The contest will be held in the High School Auditorium with an admission charge of 50 cents.

The High School Stage band will provide the music for the event. Out of town jaycees will serve as judges.

Each year cities and towns compete in eight population categories vying for top honors based on the degree of improvement and of citizens participating.

Smith called upon every citizen to join in the Clean-up effort to insure a more healthy and better life for all citizens of Hamlin.

Spills and thrills-mostly spills will be on the menu Saturday, May 27, when the Hamlin Lions Club brings Ralph Godfrey's famous Donkey Ball to Hamlin.

Booked as better than a rodeo and funnier than a circus, the game will be played at the Hamlin Ball Park at 7:45 p.m.

Lions Club members and local high school boys will compose the two teams.

There will also be a special act by a trick mule.

Admission to the game will be adults 75 cents and children 25 cents.

This area's first carload of wheat was shipped Tuesday by F. B. Moore Grain Company. The car was shipped to the Brackett Grain Company in Fort Worth. The wheat was from several area fields and averaged about 1 bushels to acre.

Some of the farmers who were first to get part of their wheat to the elevator were W. M. Barnett (Sayer farm), James Blanton, Mac Reynolds, Sigmond Stovall, Robert Johnson and John Scarborough.

It was not known here Wednesday whether this was the first car in the nation or not. Moore's have had the first car a number of times during the past few years.

Dinner Saturday

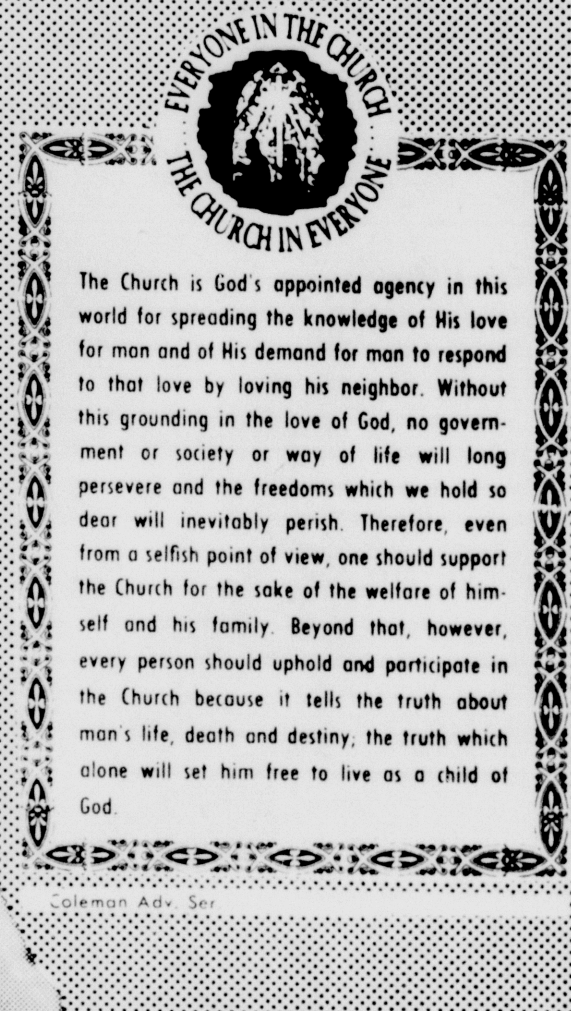

Mrs. Louberta Maxwell, president of the Senior Mission of Oak Grove Baptist Church, has announced plans for a dinner Saturday evening at Fellowship Hall.

The Ultimate in Satisfaction

When we were children, the ultimate in satisfaction was an ice cream cone, a nickel's worth of candy, a handful of homemade cookies. But now that we are grown-up, God's spirit has shown us there are more important things in life than satisfying our appetites. There is a higher plane of living — that of loving and serving God and one's neighbor. God wants us to respond to His love by showing this same kind of love to others. The church is the place to center your mature living. Attend church

AT NEWMAN TABERNACLE — Mrs. Lea Dickerson of Sylvester, one of the former residents of the Newman Community, and her great-granddaughter, Sherita Dickerson, 3, are shown in front of the Newman Tabernacle that will be the site for the Old Settlers Reunion June 5. The tabernacle is being painted and a new roof was put on last year. Tables and benches are also part of the improvements.

(Editor's note: This story was written from information compiled by W. O. Reeves of Sylvester to whom we are grateful for recording such a history.)

The open air tabernacle in the Newman Community will once again become the center of community activity when residents and former residents gather for the annual Old Settlers reunion Saturday, June 5.

This custom, which was begun in 1920 to bring the people together to give the cemetery a thorough working, is still in practice even though ample funds are provided for the upkeep of the cemetery. Friends still gather the first Saturday in June and bring a basket lunch and visit together under the tabernacle.

The tabernacle was built in 1900. In 1930 it was rebuilt and cut down to the present size of 40 X 60 feet. It has served for revivals, family reunions, a meeting place for basket dinners, and for rabbit drives 60 years ago. In 1970 a new roof and other repair work was done and long tables built to take care of the ample dinners brought in by the Old Settlers.

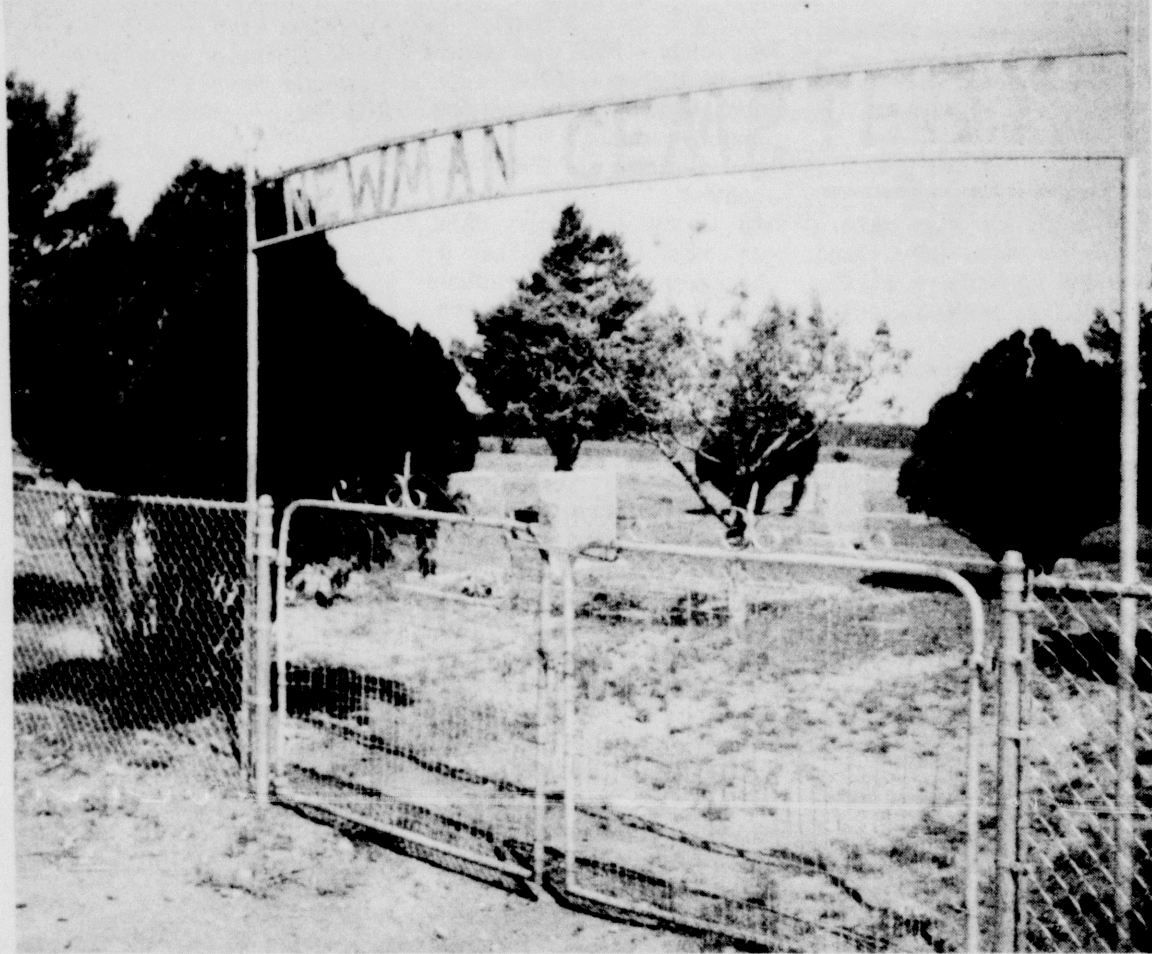

In 1970 the reunion was attended by 135 persons and there was enough food to feed that many more.

The tabernacle is the only one remaining in Fisher County. It is located one-half mile west of the old school location. The brick Methodist church still stands adjacent to the tabernacle, but is no longer used and is rapidly deteriorating. These buildings are on land donated by John W. Dickerson.

The cemetery directly across the gravelled road, was started on land donated by C. Y. Powell. The first burial was a little boy who was from a family living on the Riley Walling place. According to the records there is a grave of a woman whose name is unknown. She had previously lived in the Golan community and was brought back to Newman for burial in 1923.

A record of the location of each of the other graves is kept by Mrs. Lea Dickerson who has been custodian of the cemetery records for several years. She has served in several capacities for the cemetery fund and Old Settlers Reunion for 28 years. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. (Blackie) Ford are also officers of the organization.

The cemetery was first fenced with barbed wire in 1904.

CEMETERY ENTRANCE — A new chain link fence was placed around the Newman Cemetery with funds provided by those interested in the upkeep of the cemetery. Former residents who return the first Saturday in June each year for the Old Settlers Reunion no longer have to work the grounds. Funds are given generously for this purpose.

A better fence was constructed in 1944 with private donations and then in 1968 an arch was put over the double entrance gates and a new gate was put in for the entrance of service vehicles. This was done with money from the cemetery fund and the generous assistance of Jim Briscoe of Sweetwater, Truett Dickerson, Andrew and Lucille Ford and Lorene Mauldin.

All of the old settlers are the first generation children of the pioneers who started the settlement. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lanning, who are still actively engaged in farming and cattle raising, are about the only old settlers left in the community. The others have retired and moved to town. The farming and cattle raising are being carried on by second and third generation children.

The old settlers still come back, many from the fourth generation, from all over Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and some from as far away as California and New York.

When the community was at its best, Sylvester was a thriving town made up of gins, a theatre, a bank, dry goods store, grocery stores, a post office, a school, cafes, a barber shop and service stations. But, with cars, good roads and shopping districts, it has faded away to a post office operated by Mrs. M. D. Brown, a garage operated by Guy Mauldin, a service station operated by Truman Mauldin, a grocery store operated by Chub Hardwick, a blacksmith shop owned by Milton Montgomery and a gin.

City water has been piped in from Roby so modern conveniences are available to those who continue to live in the once bustling community.

In the early 1900's Hamlin was a good town in which to buy and sell but to get there meant a day in a wagon over dirt roads and usually a night spent in the wagon yard before the return home the following day. Ice was bought in 100 to 300 pound blocks to insure getting home with enough for the usual Saturday night ice cream making and iced tea for Sunday.

The pioneers and old settlers did not have the easily prepared food of today but there was always plenty of game, fresh and cured meats, fresh and home canned fruits and vegetables and good bread and pastry cooked by experts.

W. O. Reeves says, "That good food and cooking still shows up in the baskets brought in by the Old Settlers."

Jones County Added to Federal Drought Program

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman Omar Bureles announced today the U.S. Department of Agriculture has made available government-owned feed grain at reduced prices and hay transportation assistance to eligible livestock owners in Jones County.

Jones County was one 28 additional counties in Texas added to the list of counties eligible for the assistance. The counties have been under severe drought conditions since last fall.

Darrell Craig Wins Annual Reader's Digest Award

Darrell Craig, valedictorian of the graduating class at Hamlin High School, has been given the Annual Award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community, it was announced today by B. V. Newberry, principal.

Darrell will receive an honorary one-year subscription to The Reader's Digest in any one of its 13 language-editions which he chooses, and a personal certificate from the Editors "in recognition of past accomplishments and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

Ninety-nine Texas counties were offered assistance under the emergency livestock feed program earlier this year.

If relief were not provided, many producers would be forced to liquidate part of their foundation herds.

The livestock feed program becomes operative in counties where the Secretary of Agriculture determines that severe drought, flood or similar conditions have reduced feed supplies to the point where assistance is required to help eligible farmers preserve and maintain foundation herds and other eligible livestock.

The grain and hay transportation assistance will be offered through the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) county offices which are charged with the responsibility for determining eligibility of individual producers for assistance.

Darrell Craig to Attend Nuclear Science Symposium

West Texas Utilities Company will sponsor 22 students and teachers to the eleventh annual Texas Nuclear Science Symposium for High Schools at the University of Texas at Austin June 7-10.

Darrell Craig, a senior in Hamlin High School has been selected by school officials to attend the four-day meeting. He will be accompanied by Barney Popnoc, teacher in the high school. Darrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Craig.

The symposium, held annually at the university, is sponsored by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation and the University. West Texas Utilities Company and nine other electric power companies in Texas make up the foundation.

Some 550 outstanding science students and teachers will attend the meeting in Austin. They will have the opportunity to hear outstanding scientists from both industry and education discuss nuclear physics and other related topics. Two afternoons will be spent touring the science laboratories of the university. Included will be visits to experiments being carried on in thermonuclear (fusion) research. These experiments are being carried on by scientists at the university for the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

"West Texas Utilities company is interested in this research as a future source of generation of electricity," Roff Hardy, president, said. "These experiments are aimed at eventual control of the nuclear reaction which takes place in the hydrogen bomb. When harnessed, the energy released in this nuclear reaction could be used for such peaceful purposes as power generation."

A major feature of the symposium will be an address by Dr. Edward Teller, Lawrence Radiation Laboratories, University of California, Livermore, Calif.

Other noted speakers include Dr. H. O. Pollak of Bell

Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, N.J.; Phillip C. Johnson, M.D. of the Methodist Hospital, Houston; Dr. Sidney Stoller, president of S.M. Stoller Corporation; New York; Dr. Robert G. Cochran, Professor at Texas A&M University; Dr. J. T. Prud'homme, Texas Nuclear Corporation; Dr. W. Peter Trower, Professor of Physics, Virginia Polytechnic Institute; and Dr. Richard Caldwell, Mobile Research Laboratories, Dallas.

Speakers from the university who will be on the program include, Dr. Harlan J. Smith, Chairman of Astronomy Department, Dr. A. E. Robson, Research Scientist, and Dr. James E. Stice, Director of the Bureau of Engineering Teaching.

"This is an excellent opportunity for students interested in careers in science to hear about and see the thrilling things that are happening in the field of nuclear science," President Hardy said. "Our association with the university in this program also has provided a field of research for a number of university students and the opportunity to have these annual high school science symposiums."

The Merkel Mail — The summer Youth Program underwritten by the Merkel Chamber of Commerce and the Community Fund will be held this year from June 7 to July 30. Only change for those school age children enrolled in the program will be an increase in the casual weekly rate from $1.25 to $1.50.

Other rates will remain the same: $10 for the complete 8-week program for one child, $17.50 for two children, $25 for three and $30 for four or more.

Directors of the Merkel Chamber of Commerce set the recommended retail holidays for the coming year at a meeting Tuesday night.

July Fourth comes on Sunday this year and stores will be closed Monday.

Other holidays will be on their regular dates and include: Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's.

Western Observer (Anson) — Razing of at least three old, unsightly buildings will help signal the opening next Monday of Anson's City-Wide Clean-up for this spring.

The big push for a complete job removing rubbish and junk from every home, place of business and from vacant lots will continue throughout the week with the City furnishing trucks for removal of larger items and citizens encouraged to use their own pickups and trucks to facilitate the effort.

Buildings in the business section that have already been demolished and sites cleared were the old Chili King Cafe and another small building just north of the old cafe. At least one other building, the old C. H. Pool mansion is being torn down so that a block of residential lots can be cleared.

A well-rounded summer recreation program for Anson is assured this year and is to start on June 7, under the direction of Coach Charles Cate, it was announced this week by George Hopper, Anson High School head coach who organized and supervised the program the past two years.

Registration for participation in the program, which includes 10 areas of physical training and recreational activities, will begin Monday, May 24, at the Anson Chamber of Commerce office. The general registration fee, including insurance will be $2.00. Additional fees will be charged in swimming and life saving, tennis, twirling and cheerleading classes.

The Stamford American — The Stamford Hospital District hit a snag at Austin Monday in their efforts to get a bill passed which would call an election on the question of enlarging the district. However, board members said Wednesday they were not discouraged and that they would continue to press for passage of the bill.

The bill had been introduced by Rep. Frank Calhoun and a hearing was held by the Counties Committee. After protests were voiced by some residents of Lueders and Anson, the bill was referred to a sub-committee.

The proposed new district would include both Lueders and Avoca, would extend southward to within five miles of Anson, would not include Funston but would run along U. S. Highway 180 on to the east. To the west, the district line would run to about one-half way between Tuxedo and Hamlin.

The summer program will be directed by Steve Radway, coach at Stamford High School, and will be in progress for an eight week period.

Registration for the various phases begins May 31 and continues through June 4.

Bill Introduced to Exempt Farm Vehicles from Act

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Omar Burleson of Texas, has recently introduced legislation that would amend Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act in order to completely exempt certain farm vehicles from its provisions. Burleson said there is a widespread support for this legislation in the rural areas of the 17th Congressional District. While there has been a historic exemption for farm vehicle operators in the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, last year new regulations were proposed to require that all drivers of farm trucks must be at least 21 and have a medical certificate not more than 24 months old. They must pass both Federal written and road tests. These are in addition to state regulations.

While these would presumably be applicable only to interstate commerce, recent interpretations suggest that if the product hauled subsequently ends up in interstate commerce the hauler would be subject to regulation. Clearly, there is no way for the individual farmer or rancher to determine the final destination of his load.

Burleson said he feels such regulations to be unreasonable because of the nature of farm truck usage, which is different from that of large-scale commercial transportation. "Regulations useful in the latter case would be oppressive for the farmer," the Congressman said. "Most farm hauls are for short trips on an intermittent basis, but would still come under the proposed regulations. Further, farm truck safety records are already dramatically better than commercial haulers," he continued.

Because of protests by Members of Congress, farm organizations and individual farmers, the Federal Highway Administration has drafted some revision to eliminate some of these stringent requirements and attempt to make the proposed regulations more palatable to farmers and ranchers, by extending the exemption date from July 1 to December 1; to exempt from driver qualification rules all drivers of vehicles 10,000 pounds or less; and propose lowering minimum age for those using such trucks on farms. These revisions have not been approved, however, Congressman Burleson said. "I hope this can be settled administratively," Burleson continued, "and that this proposed legislation will be helpful as leverage to accomplish this purpose. As a matter of fact, there appears no justification for any regulation on driving farm trucks, other than that already provided by the State. The legislation introduced is for this purpose."
